

Campus Programs and Resources

Better Together Interfaith Initiative:

Better Together is a national movement of students that are bringing together people of different religious and non-religious backgrounds to work toward a common goal. It's a network for students, by students – a place where you can come together and work to make interfaith cooperation a priority on your campus.

Black Faculty & Staff Association:

The mission of the Black Faculty and Staff Association is to contribute to the betterment of the University of Alabama by serving as an advocate for educational equity, with an emphasis on African--American students, and the professional needs of its members.

Capstone International Center:

The mission of the Capstone International Center is to initiate, promote, and support The University of Alabama's international efforts on campus as well as throughout the state and the world. The Center, comprised of Education Abroad, the English Language Institute, and International Services, coordinates the University's international endeavors, facilitates the development of a global perspective campus-wide, and supports students, faculty, and staff in learning, teaching, research, service, and global outreach.

Crossroads Community Center:

UA's Crossroads Community Engagement Center is an initiative of the Division of Community Affairs. Crossroads fosters respectful intercultural engagement for students, faculty and staff, and community members throughout the state by facilitating workshops, dialogs, and collaborative programming.

UA Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion:

The Division of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion provides leadership for the University to build on its core principles of inclusiveness in learning environments, programs, workforce and strategic partnerships.

Report An Incident
Programs and Resources

Division of Student Life:

The University of Alabama and the Division of Student Life are committed to creating and sustaining a diverse, inclusive, and welcoming campus community in which every student can thrive.

Equal Opportunity Programs:

The Office of Equal Opportunity Programs and Disability Services supports the University's efforts to foster a diverse student body and workforce. The Office works with University Administration, departments, and committees to ensure that University policies and programs comply with applicable nondiscrimination requirements. The University Compliance Officer serves as the Campus Coordinator for the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, as amended, the ADA Amendments Act of 2008, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Safe Zone and LGBTQIA+ Services:

The UA Safe Zone Resource Center provides educational outreach, community support, and crisis intervention resources for LGBTQIA+ members of the University of Alabama community and their allies. The SZRC offers help connecting people at UA to LGBTQIA+ inclusive resources, provides training on LGBTQIA+ topics for UA students, faculty, and staff, facilitates LGBTQIA+ community building programs on campus, and works with the Safe Zone advisory board to advocate LGBTQIA+ interests at UA.

Student Organizations:

Student Involvement recognizes that UA students come from many different backgrounds and have interests and passions that are as unique and exciting as they are. Student Involvement's mission is to connect every student with the groups and activities that will best fit their goals and foster their interests. Whether those interests and goals are intellectual, social, recreational, cultural, multicultural, or spiritual in nature, there is a place and a community for every student at The University of Alabama! (link - <https://mysource.ua.edu/>)

Veteran and Military Affairs:

The mission of The Office for Veteran and Military Affairs is to provide, facilitate, or coordinate programs and services to meet the special needs of veterans, service members, dependents, and survivors in order to ease their transition to college life and fulfill their educational goals.